LET THE MAIL BEGIN!

 FREE COMIC BOOK DAY ***
 DAY! *****

I'm Johnny DC, and what I do around here is read the mail you gals and guys send me and (usually) print it on pages like this one. One question I get a lot is, "Can you send me a free comic book?"

No.

Uh, sorry, but DC doesn't give me any free comics, and my allowance isn't big enough to buy comics to give away.

BUT... once a year, on Free Comic Book Day, you can get free comics! In 2007, it's May 5. Here's how it works. On Free Comic Book Day, certain comic book stores give away certain free comics. Not all stores participate or join in the fun, but if you know a store near where you live, you can ask someone who works there if they do.

You don't get just any comic; there are special comics published for the day. Last year, one of them was a reprint of THE BATMAN STRIKES #1. This year, the DC comic will be a surprise. How many comics you get depends on a lot of stuff. How many comics does the store have to give away? Are you the right age to read everything they have? How many people get there before you?

That's it. Remember the day, May 5, 2007, find a store, and get free comic books! The web site www.freecomicbookday.com has a list of the special comics and can help you find a store, so ask an adult to check it out or get permission to look yourself.

And if you miss this year, Free Comic Book Day will probably happen again next year. Hooray!

My favorite Powerpuff Girl is Bubbles. I like Bubbles because she is cute!

Mojo Jojo's feelings are hurt, Rachel! Everyone likes Bubbles. Isn't Mojo cute? He has cute pink brains, cute fangs, and a cute evil laugh!
— Johnny DC

DRAWING BY RACHEL FOCKENS

Dear Johnny DC,

I really like the idea of having HI HI PUFFY AMIYUMI being part of your comics. It's almost like watching new episodes, but on paper.

Not only do I like the cartoons, but I like the real thing!

I like how you said, "It's almost like watching new episodes, but on paper." You're right, you're right! And they're always "on!"
